

THAT GREAT MERCHANDISING
EVENT OF THE YEAR
OPENS NEXT WEEK
— THURSDAY, JULY 18 —
The Perkins
Annual Red
Tag Sale
WATCH FOR DATE AND ANNOUNCEMENT
"NUT SED"
Perkins Bros. Co.
"Where Most People Trade."
DURANT, OKLA.

LOOK FOR THESE TAGS.
READ THE
BIG RED
CIRCULAR

FROM UTICA

Una Ewing entertained quite a number of her friends at her beautiful home Friday night.
Emma Clark and children Wednesday for a few weeks' visit with relatives near Dallas.
Hattie Churchman was the hostess for Miss Mabel Murphy Saturday and Sunday.
Lana Inawidly and daughter, Miss Gannex, have returned to visit with the family of J. H. Smith, near Amarillo, Texas. It is reported that they will now make home in Durant.
Mrs. W. C. Sharp purchased a new Graceland this week.
Mr. and Mrs. Sam Simms of near Colbert spent Sunday with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Sharp.
Mrs. W. W. Knight has gone to East Texas with her husband, where they expect to stay for some time for the benefit of Mr. Knight's health.
Quite a number of transient men are busy with their teams hauling oats from the threshers.
Mrs. Hardy Foster of Pittsburg, Okla., and her two little daughters, are spending a few weeks with her mother, Mrs. Shelton, of near Calera.
Mrs. E. J. Goza of Oklahoma City arrived in Calera Monday to spend a week or so with parents and among friends.
Minor Mead, Jr., is expected home from New York Saturday to spend a few days with wife and parents.
Mrs. Edd Goza was stricken with paralysis Tuesday of last week and died July 4. Mrs. Goza left a husband and two sons.
Miss Juanita Goza returned home from Oklahoma City Tuesday, after spending some three weeks there with her brother and family.
Mrs. Clyde Cooper of Caney, and her mother, Mrs. M. S. Keller, of this place, left Wednesday afternoon for Sulphur, Okla., where they will spend the summer with relatives and friends.
Mrs. Jennie Campbell and little daughter Myrtle spent Saturday, Sunday and Monday with Mr. and Mrs. Chesnut of south of town.
Miss Vera Evans will leave Monday for Stewart, Okla., where she will take charge of a school.
Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Clinton were visitors to Durant Tuesday afternoon.
Mrs. Bertha Edwards returned to Calera last week from points in Texas, where she has been for some time past with relatives and friends.
Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Trout leave the coming week for Sulphur, Okla. and points in Arkansas, where they expect to spend the summer.
Rev. J. J. Hickerson, pastor of the Second Baptist church, will convene a meeting here Saturday night. Everyone is invited to be present.
Mrs. J. H. Keller was called to Orr, Okla., on account of the sickness of her mother, Mrs. J. H. Grizzell.
George Leonard left Monday week for Elmore, where he will spend the summer with his sister, Mrs. Anna Stool.
Mrs. Anna Malcolm left Sunday for Monticello, Ill., where she will spend a month with relatives and old time friends.
Mr. and Mrs. Chester Wells of Oklahoma City are spending the summer with relatives at Calera and at Ahlsville.

FROM KEMP
Mrs. Calvin Battles has returned home, after spending a few days with her husband, who is in training at Camp Bowie.
We are all sorry that so many people were disappointed the night of July 4th, but we could not get any ice cream. Hope you will come again.
The speaking by Chas. P. Abbott and others of Durant was enjoyed by all present.
Mrs. Lloyd Orden and Mrs. W. B. Ogden are spending a week at Fort Worth with Floyd Ogden.
Miss Esther Whittemore was a Durant visitor Saturday night.
J. Lee Cunningham of Durant was in town Monday in the interest of his political affairs.
C. C. McCarty of Durant, candidate for sheriff, was here Monday.
W. W. Elrod was in Durant Thursday to see another bunch of our boys leave for a good cause.
Mrs. Emma Kirkhart has been quite ill for the past week.
Mrs. F. C. Battles, who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. Ollie Camp in Texas, has returned home.
Miss Mildred Whittemore, who is attending the S. E. N. at Durant, spent the week-end with her mother here.
Calvin Battles, who is the training camp at Camp Bowie, visited with his parents the latter part of the week.
Mrs. R. A. Stone, who has been at the Sherman hospital for about three weeks, has returned home and is much better.
Chas. P. Abbott, county attorney, made a nice talk on why we should buy U. S. S. Stamps, and it was enjoyed by all who heard it.
Maxine, the little baby of Mrs. Raymond Ogden, happened to a serious accident when it fell off the bed and threw its shoulders out of place.
Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Ellis of Hendrix, were the guests of Mrs. F. C. Battles and family Sunday.

FROM CADDO

After spending several months in this place, Miss Valree Miller has returned to her home in Cooper, Tex., accompanied by her sister, Mrs. C. R. Sharp.
Reports from the boys who last entered for Camp Cody, N. M., say that they like it fine, and are ready to "go over" at any time now.
Miss Edna L. Lawrence of Vernon, Tex., arrived Sunday to spend several weeks with her aunt, Mrs. J. W. Smith.
Miss Jennie Manning of this place is visiting her aunt, Mrs. O. R. Nicholson of Durant this week.
Mrs. Ira Snitzer of Haskell, Okla., is visiting her mother, Mrs. F. Clower of this place.
The oat crop was quite a success in this vicinity, but the corn is suffering much from the drought.
Miss Maude Clower and sister, Mrs. Ira Snitzer, are spending a few days with relatives in Durant.
Lonnie Glenn was in town Monday shaking hands with his many friends and all were glad to see him and to know that he was able to be out again.
Mr. and Mrs. George Baumgardner and little son from Florida are here spending the summer. They made the entire trip in a Ford.
Fred Slack returned from Fort Worth Monday, where he had been visiting his cousin, Ollie Slack, at Camp Bowie, but Ollie left before Fred arrived. Dick Bilbo was also one of the members to leave Bowie for an eastern port, from where they are to go over the water soon.

FROM SILO

Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Harrison were Durant visitors one day last week.
Dr. Austin and son, Claude, went to Achille Saturday, where the latter procured a school near that place.
Word has been received here by Spurgeon Bishop's parents that he has arrived safely in France.
Mrs. Edmond Jefferson of Brown visited her sisters here the latter part of the week.
John Talley and family, and sister, Mrs. Gentry, were among the Durant visitors Saturday.
Mrs. Marvin Bishop, who has been visiting her husband at Camp Bowie, returned home last week.
Last Wednesday morning members of the Silo auxiliary to the Red Cross showed their patriotism by shouldering their hoos and hoing out the Red Cross peanuts, so kindly donated by Mrs. Will Atkins. Those hoing were: Mesdames Allie Brown, Lucy Bishop, Madie Austin, Lou Smith, Irene Talley, Lou Croley, Julia Staniel, Beulah Harrison, Dixie Parish, and Misses Margie Nicholson and Ruth.
Dr. and Mrs. Austin, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Edmond Jefferson, spent the day with Hugh Bond and family at Star last Sunday.
Messrs. Will Furlong, Donald Talley, and Claude and Ed Harrison, together with their families, were at those from Silo who attended the singing convention at Finchtown on Sunday.
Mr. and Mrs. Dave Croley visited relatives at Foleum Saturday and Sunday.
Edzel Gates and sister, Zaida, visited Mollie Dee Bond at Ahlsville last week, returning home Sunday.
Mrs. W. G. Austin, who has been appointed a committee of the Home Service section of the Silo Red Cross Auxiliary, attended the committee meeting of the Durant Red Cross Chapter Monday afternoon.
Mr. and Mrs. Ed Shirley have returned to their home at Hughes Springs, Texas, after having visited Mrs. Shirley's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. James, for several days.

Tish Hartwell is up for "second and subsequent" violation of the prohibition law, and if convicted he may get a prison sentence. The county attorney says he had 250 quarts in his possession at once. He had been convicted once.

Frank Rollan of Mead, one of the men who was sent to New Mexico a few days ago, has returned home, he having been rejected because of physical disability.

FROM ARMSTRONG

Fred Haverkamp was in Durant Saturday purchasing supplies.
Mesdames E. Wilson and Fred Wilson entertained the following relatives on the Fourth of July: Jess Wilson and wife; Walter Wilson and family; Mrs. Virgil Hardin and little son, Alva; all from Durant.
Mrs. S. L. Crumley of Allen, Ok., mother of Mrs. George Stephenson, arrived in Armstrong Sunday morning to spend several weeks.
The following Armstrong people were visitors in Durant Saturday: E. Wilson, B. C. Dodson, Tomas Anderson, Jess Argo, Dan Robertson, Theodore Roebuck, Elbert Pryor, Ollie Morehead, Spencer Davidson, B. C. Dodson, Charley Iwer, L. Graham, A. W. Sims, T. C. Anderson, and Edgar Russell.
John Atkinson and two sons, Verner and Claude, motored to Durant Saturday on a shopping trip.
Bert Ward and wife of Yarnaby are visiting the latter's father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Anderson, for several days.
Verna Haverkamp spent Friday night with her friend, Lola Smith, of Durant.
Addie Jewell Mitchell was a visitor at the home of J. E. Smith in East Durant all last week. Mary Alice Mitchell is having a pleasant time at the same time.
Mr. and Mrs. Fred Calloway motored to their farm down near Blue Sunday afternoon.
Lola Smith spent several days of last week visiting in Armstrong at the home of W. D. Mitchell.
Sergeant Willey O. Zachary of the 51st company, Camp Travis, spent a few hours Saturday visiting friends at Armstrong.
Mrs. Newell Hudspeth of Durant visited her father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Marshall, Saturday.
Mr. and Mrs. R. T. McGee and a party of friends from Caddo motored down to Armstrong Sunday afternoon, calling on Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Stephenson.
Mr. and Mrs. John W. Garrett, Mrs. A. T. Dickerson, Charley and Elbert Pryor, Ollie Morehead, and Willie D. Mitchell were a few of the Armstrongites who visited in Durant Thursday and witnessed the Fourth of July baseball game between the Bankers and the Mercantiles of the city Red Cross League.
C. H. Bowen and family and Roy Morehead drove to Durant Saturday for supplies.
B. W. Pickle, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. F. D. Campbell and infant daughter, Bettie Claire, and C. M. Shull, motored to the county seat Saturday afternoon.
Miss Cleo Marshall and Miss Grace Adcock spent a few hours pleasant time Saturday in Caddo visiting with friends.
Verna Haverkamp is this week entertaining a former schoolmate, Nellie Engholm, of Kenefick.

FROM KENEFICK

Miss Mabel Black was shopping in Durant Tuesday.
Mrs. McClellan was visiting in Durant Friday.
Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Meeks left last Wednesday morning for a month's visit in Tennessee and Kentucky to visit relatives and friends.
Johnny Bryce of Durant spent Saturday and Sunday at the home of Mrs. John L. Morris.
Scott Sessions and family left last Saturday for a week's visit with friends and relatives in Rice, Texas.
Mr. and Mrs. Carroll Wood of Calera, and little daughter, Virginia, spent Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John L. Morris.
Miss Lena Thompson of Kenefick spent Monday shopping in Durant.
Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Evans attended the show in Durant Tuesday evening.
Mrs. Gail Gibson has been very ill for the past week.
Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Matlock and daughter Janice visited relatives and friends in Durant Sunday.
O. W. Smith has returned home after being away several days looking after cattle business.
Miss Gatha Jackson was visiting friends in Coleman Saturday and Sunday.
Miss Marybelle Colbert of Twelve Mile was visiting in Kenefick last Sunday.
George Jackson was visiting in Durant Monday.
Rev. J. Y. Greve preached fine sermons Sunday and Sunday night.

FROM COLBERT

Miss Maurine Hannan left for Fort Worth and Grand Prairie, Texas, last Wednesday for a visit.
Miss Roscoe Banner of Durant was in Colbert visiting this week.
Friends are here from Colma, Texas, visiting Miss Thelma Johnston.
Leon Gooding and family were in Durant Monday on business.
Talmage Hannan, who has been visiting relative in Wapauke, returned home Tuesday.
C. C. Craft made a business trip to Colbert last week.
W. S. Johnston and his daughter, Thelma, were in Durant Tuesday.
Mrs. Richard Morgan, who has been in Fort Worth to be near her husband at the training camp, came home Monday.
Prof. G. P. Beane made a business trip to Colbert this week.
The threshers around Colbert are all busy this week.
The families of George and Mel Murray spent the Fourth at Mineral Wells, Texas.
Mrs. H. L. Wiggins and Miss Lillie Hannan went to Durant Tuesday to meet their little brother, Talmage Hannan.
Walter Boles made a business trip to Denison Wednesday.
One of Willis Talley's fine horses was cut severely on a scraper while working on a road south of town.
Henry Moore was a business visitor in Fort Worth last week.

The News prints candidate cards

FROM BENNINGTON

Mrs. B. M. Stark left Saturday for a visit with her daughter, Mrs. R. O. Knight, of Durant, and while away will also visit her son, Frank Stark, of Sherman.
Mrs. J. B. Ford, who has been in the Sherman hospital for an operation for goiter, has returned feeling fine. The operation was a success in every way and she says she never felt better.
L. E. Bachelor and family went to Fort Worth Friday of last week to see Will Glass, who is in Camp Bowie. They returned on Monday night.
Miss Mildred Allen, who has been visiting in Dallas, returned the first of the week.
Mr. Pritchard and family of Banty spent Friday with W. W. Stark and family. Mr. Pritchard's nephew left on the noon train for his home.
Mr. and Mrs. Swinney of Terrell, Texas, are visiting Mr. and Mrs. Glass, the parents of Mrs. Swinney.
W. A. Pope and family spent Sunday with D. E. Burnside and family here.
Mrs. Allen and Mrs. Lindsay were in Durant Monday on Red Cross affairs.
Miss Mattie Russell returned from High, Texas, last week, to spend the rest of the summer in Bennington.
A good rain is very much needed. Corn is suffering, and our chances for corn bread next winter are slim.

FROM CALERA

Misses Francie Colbert and Tinnie England of Durant spent Sunday in Calera with their many young friends.
Mr. and Mrs. H. S. England of Durant were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Turley Sunday.
C. E. Bowen and family of Armstrong have come to Calera to spend the time during the harvest.
Miss Opal Morehead, who is attending the summer normal, is visiting this week with her sister, Mrs. R. H. Ausley.
W. C. Sharp purchased a new Graceland this week.
Mr. and Mrs. Sam Simms of near Colbert spent Sunday with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Sharp.
Mrs. W. W. Knight has gone to East Texas with her husband, where they expect to stay for some time for the benefit of Mr. Knight's health.
Quite a number of transient men are busy with their teams hauling oats from the threshers.
Mrs. Hardy Foster of Pittsburg, Okla., and her two little daughters, are spending a few weeks with her mother, Mrs. Shelton, of near Calera.
Mrs. E. J. Goza of Oklahoma City arrived in Calera Monday to spend a week or so with parents and among friends.
Minor Mead, Jr., is expected home from New York Saturday to spend a few days with wife and parents.
Mrs. Edd Goza was stricken with paralysis Tuesday of last week and died July 4. Mrs. Goza left a husband and two sons.
Miss Juanita Goza returned home from Oklahoma City Tuesday, after spending some three weeks there with her brother and family.
Mrs. Clyde Cooper of Caney, and her mother, Mrs. M. S. Keller, of this place, left Wednesday afternoon for Sulphur, Okla., where they will spend the summer with relatives and friends.
Mrs. Jennie Campbell and little daughter Myrtle spent Saturday, Sunday and Monday with Mr. and Mrs. Chesnut of south of town.
Miss Vera Evans will leave Monday for Stewart, Okla., where she will take charge of a school.
Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Clinton were visitors to Durant Tuesday afternoon.
Mrs. Bertha Edwards returned to Calera last week from points in Texas, where she has been for some time past with relatives and friends.
Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Trout leave the coming week for Sulphur, Okla. and points in Arkansas, where they expect to spend the summer.
Rev. J. J. Hickerson, pastor of the Second Baptist church, will convene a meeting here Saturday night. Everyone is invited to be present.
Mrs. J. H. Keller was called to Orr, Okla., on account of the sickness of her mother, Mrs. J. H. Grizzell.
George Leonard left Monday week for Elmore, where he will spend the summer with his sister, Mrs. Anna Stool.
Mrs. Anna Malcolm left Sunday for Monticello, Ill., where she will spend a month with relatives and old time friends.
Mr. and Mrs. Chester Wells of Oklahoma City are spending the summer with relatives at Calera and at Ahlsville.

FROM WADE

Mrs. Marie Bell is visiting her husband at Camp Bowie this week, also his mother and father.
Mrs. Nellie Ford is visiting her husband at Camp Bowie.
Little Wilbur Eddy is injured at the mill.
Mrs. Eddy, of Texas, is here to spend the summer with her son, Les Eddy.
J. L. White with wife in Durant on Monday.
Albert Banyon and wife took dinner with Mr. and Mrs. G. S. Pennell Sunday.
Mrs. Alice Brightwell and little daughter are visiting relatives at this place.
Miss Ollie Edmet is staying with her uncle, Jim Edmet.
Born To Mr. and Mrs. George Whitworth, last Friday, a fine boy.
Born To Mr. and Mrs. Hamilton, last Friday, a girl.
Mr. Lee and Bill Partman were in Sherman last week.
Lee Bolin left for Bonham, Texas, Sunday to work on a thresher.
Our crops are fine in this community, but they are needing rain bad.

Perkins Bros. COMPANY.

It Came In July 1917 RED TAG SALE

It Will Be Here In July 1918

OPENING THURSDAY, JULY 18th

Perkins Bros. COMPANY.

RED TAG SALE

It Has Always Made Good

Be At Opening

Perkins Bros. COMPANY.

BUNGALOW

All Next Week
The Merry Mad Caps
VAUDEVILLE
FINE PICTURES
Complete change every day